

Type of procedure	Lambdoid synostosis (unilateral/bilateral) with springs or resorbable plates
Airway	Endotracheal intubation. Secure tube carefully.
Anesthesia model	General anesthesia: TIVA or Sevoflurane / Remifentanil.
Premedication	Age-adjusted premedication. Paracetamol ± Clonidine.
Postoperative analgesia	Multimodal analgesia. IV opioids often required.
Notes	Major pediatric craniofacial surgery. High risk of blood loss – crossmatched blood mandatory. Strict temperature, fluid and Hb management. Postoperative ICU care commonly required.
Recommended vascular access	Peripheral IV ×2 (22–20G). Arterial line mandatory. CVK often indicated.